

MEDIA INVITE

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4TH, 2015

You're invited to join us for the 2015 Employer Summit – what puts my business at risk?
at the Holiday Inn, Sudbury ON 8:00am – 1:30pm
(agenda attached)

Employers have a lot on their plate. They work hard to keep their business running and to make money at what they do. It is however very challenging for any business, small, medium or large, to keep up with the latest legislative changes, policies and issues that may affect their business or even put them at risk.

To help area employers understand their legal obligations, Employment Ontario, the Sudbury Chamber of Commerce and Workforce Planning for Sudbury & Manitoulin are hosting the 2015 Employer Summit – what puts my business at risk? This half day event which includes breakfast and lunch is filled with information from experts on labour laws, employment standards, human resources, apprenticeships, employer resources, strategies to enhance their workforce, and much, much more.

For more information contact:
Reggie Caverson, Executive Director
Workforce Planning for Sudbury & Manitoulin 705-675-5822
exec@planningourworkforce.ca

Event supporters include local employment service providers such as: YMCA Employment Services, Gezhtoojig Employment and Training, SVRC, March of Dimes, Employment Options employ, as well as Professions North/Nord, the Regional Business Centre and RDÉE Ontario.