

All media are invited to attend the biennial STELLAR AWARDS on Wednesday, November 28th, 2018
at the Holiday Inn, Sudbury, Ontario
from 11:30 am to 1:30pm

The STELLAR AWARDS are hosted by the Education Coordinating Team, chaired by Workforce Planning for Sudbury & Manitoulin. This team includes representatives from both local colleges, the university, all four area school boards, Kenjgewin Teg Educational Institute and Social Services, City of Greater Sudbury. Each team member nominates an individual or an employer who has provided exemplary experiential learning opportunities for students and clients to receive a Stellar Award.

This year's awards go to: Vale; Lacroix Lawyers/Avocats; SCR Mining & Tunnelling; Carole Delorme, Volunteer Advisor, Health Sciences North; Joanne Leveque, C & W Services; Bill Bray, Vice President Commercial, RBC Royal Bank; and Rhéal Gélinas, Carpenters & Allied Workers Local 2486 who is the recipient of two Stellar Awards.

Guest-speaker Noah Aiken-Klar, Director of Youth Social Impact with RBC Royal Bank will speak on their report "The Coming Skills Revolution - Humans Wanted: Canadian Youth Can Thrive in the Age of Disruption." This will be followed by lunch and the awards presentation. Martin Brouillard, Acting Service Delivery Manager for the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities will be on hand to present the awards. Awards are designed and engraved by St. Albert Adult Learning Centre.

All media are welcome to join us for the STELLAR AWARDS event (and lunch)

For more information, contact:
Reggie Caverson, Executive Director Workforce Planning for Sudbury & Manitoulin by phone at: 705-675-5822 or by email at: info@planningourworkforce.ca